

Forensic Document Examiner

Mr. Hargett is a retired Chief Document Examiner for the U.S. Secret Service and has represented the Secret Service as an expert in over twenty-three foreign countries. He is also a published author in domestic and international technical journals in the area of handwriting identification/document examination. He is recognized as an expert domestically and internationally having testified over four hundred and fifty times in courts of law, to include twice before a U. S. Congressional sub-committee and has appeared at the International Tribunal, The Hague, Netherlands. Mr. Hargett also provided training and technical assistance for eleven years in Eastern Europe and South America as a contract Senior Forensic Advisor for the U. S. Treasury Department, U. S. Justice Department and U. S. State Department.